Why you are interested in becoming a CCYP Ambassador in 2022?

What unique skills and experience do you think you would bring to the CCYP Ambassador Program in 2022?

What is the one thing you think should be changed or improved to make Tasmania a better place for children and young people?

Part 3: Attending meetings and dates for your diary

CCYP Ambassadors will be expected to attend at least two meetings during 2022. You cannot attend two meetings from the same meeting round (e.g., you can't go to both the Launceston and Devonport meetings for Regional Meeting 1)

You will need to make your own way to meetings. If you have to rely on someone such as your parent/guardian to help you get to meetings, please check with them before you apply to see whether they can help you get to at least two of these meetings. If you anticipate any problems attending meetings, please email the CCYP Ambassador team to discuss how they can assist you at: ccyp.ambassadors@childcomm.tas.gov.au.

Are you able to attend at least two of the above meetings? (Please circle your answer)

Yes

No

Can't commit to two rounds of meetings? That's okay, there are other ways you can have a say!

We understand that life gets busy. If you are unable to commit to taking part in at least two rounds of the above meetings, you may be interested in joining the CCYP Your Engagement Place (YEP!) program. This means we will tell you about other engagement opportunities that are coming up that do not require as big a commitment. If you would like to add your contact details to this list, please go to www.childcomm.tas.gov.au/get-involved/ and register for the YEP! program.

Part 4. Equity and diversity monitoring (optional)
