

Sharing of content on the CCYP social media and websites

Thank you for sharing your photos and videos on the Commission for Children and Young People Tasmania (CCYP)'s social media channels.

By tagging @child_comm_tas, the Commissioner's Facebook or Twitter page, or using hashtags listed in any CCYP campaign post including but not limited to #CCYPTAS, #sociallysafe, or #safelysocial when you upload a photo, video or article ('Content') to Instagram, Twitter, Facebook, or to the CCYP Facebook Page, you agree to allow the CCYP to share your Content on our Instagram, Facebook and Twitter accounts, and social media channels or feeds ('In-Platform') on CCYP's digital platforms (including www.childcomm.tas.gov.au) utilising a partner social media aggregation tool, with your applicable social media handle always being created, and you agree to comply with the respective Terms of Use of Instagram, Facebook and Twitter and CCYP's current Instagram, Twitter and Facebook Terms of Use outlined below.

Facebook

The following are CCYP's current Commissioner for Children and Young People Tasmania (CCYP) Facebook terms of use.

CCYP staff monitor this page Monday to Friday (excluding public holidays), during business hours only.

For enquiries related to the Commissioner's work, please call +61 3 6166 1366 or email childcomm@childcomm.tas.gov.au

If you have concerns about the safety or wellbeing of a child or young person, please call the Strong Families, Safe Kids Advice and Referral Line on 1800 000 123 or visit www.strongfamiliesafekids.tas.gov.au

The Commissioner for Children and Young People Tasmania has developed the CCYP Facebook Page as a hub for people interested in the work of the Commissioner and the views of Tasmania's children and young people. Here you'll find general information and resources relating to the Commissioner's work in Tasmania, as well as images and videos that help capture both the Commissioner's work and Tasmanian children and young people's views and experience.

The Commissioner for Children and Young People Tasmania does not accept responsibility for the comments of followers or fans on the page. Public posts to the CCYP Facebook Page are not representative of the opinions of the Commissioner, CCYP staff or the Tasmanian Government; nor do we confirm their accuracy.

We welcome your comments on this page and ask that you please stay respectful of other community members and our staff. We promise we'll do the same.

Please remember that one of our target audiences of our social media channels are children and young people, and your comments, posts and other content should be appropriate for this audience.

We reserve the right to hide or remove comments, posts or other content if they contain:

- violent, obscene, profane, hateful, derogatory, illegal or racist comments, content, links or images or incite such comment or behaviour
- comments that threaten or defame any person or organisation
- solicitations, advertisements, or endorsements of any financial or commercial organisations
- multiple successive off-topic posts by a single user
- repetitive posts copied and pasted or duplicated by single or multiple users
- offensive, inaccurate, false, misleading, deceptive or harmful comments or content
- material which infringes third party intellectual property rights
- any other inappropriate content or comments as determined at the Commissioner's absolute discretion

The Commissioner for Children and Young People Tasmania reserves the right to ban users who do not comply with this policy.

The Commissioner for Children and Young People Tasmania does NOT claim ANY ownership rights to photos or videos posted to the CCYP Facebook Page wall or tagged to the CCYP Facebook Page. However, by posting a photo or video on our page wall or by tagging us, the Commissioner for Children and Young People Tasmania is granted, by virtue of and subject to Facebook's Statement of Rights and Responsibilities, a non-exclusive, royalty-free, worldwide, revocable, non-transferable, perpetual sub-licence (subject to revocation) to share, repost, use and/or publicly display your photo or video, including and without limitation through any relevant social media channels, pages or accounts administered by the Commissioner for Children and Young People Tasmania and on In-Platform social media feeds on CCYP's digital platforms utilising a partner social media aggregation tool.

Further, by submitting content to the CCYP Facebook Page or tagging the CCYP Facebook Page, and consistent with the Facebook's Statement of Rights and Responsibilities in relation to public posts, you acknowledge that no royalties or other remuneration will be paid or payable to you for your content, or for the granting of the rights described above (for uses and rights beyond Facebook please see the paragraph below). You will be credited for any Content shared on the Commissioner for Children and Young People Tasmania's official social media channels and In-Platform social media feeds on CCYP's digital platforms. You retain ownership of all intellectual property rights in the Content, and the right to use the Content for your own purposes or let others use your Content for their purposes. You must ensure that you have all necessary rights (without infringing any third-party rights, including intellectual property rights, privacy rights, and moral rights) to that Content.

If the Commissioner for Children and Young People Tasmania wishes to modify, delete from, add to, and/or reproduce your photo or video, including editing, compiling and assembling video works, with or without captioning or the use of photographic works as underlying works compiled into moving image without limitation through relevant social media channels, pages or accounts administered by the Commissioner for Children and Young People Tasmania, the Commissioner for Children and Young People Tasmania will contact the rights holder for written permission. You acknowledge that no royalties or other remuneration will be paid or payable to you for your content, or for the granting of the rights described above. You will be credited for any Content shared on the Commissioner for Children and Young People Tasmania's official social media channels. You retain ownership of all intellectual property rights in the Content, and the right to use the Content for your own purposes or let others use your Content for their purposes. You must ensure that you have all necessary rights (without infringing any third-party rights, including intellectual property rights, privacy rights, and moral rights) to that Content.

The rights holder may opt out of the agreement at any time by emailing childcomm@childcomm.tas.gov.au.

Uploading a photo or video to the CCYP Facebook Page or tagging the CCYP Facebook page to a post does not guarantee that your Content will be used and we reserve the right to refuse to accept, post or transmit the Content for any reason or remove the Content for any reason and at any time, at our discretion.

If your photo or video is used on In-Platform social media feeds on the Commissioner for Children and Young People Tasmania digital platforms utilising a social media aggregation tool, your social media handle will always be credited and, where possible, linked back to the social media account from which the content was posted.

When utilising social media aggregation tools to display a social media feed on digital screens other than personal media devices (i.e. fixed digital display installations, temporary event digital displays, etc), the Commissioner for Children and Young People Tasmania will contact the owner of the Content as a courtesy to check if the rights holder is happy for their photo or video uploaded to the Commissioner for Children and Young People Tasmania's Facebook Page or tagged to the Commissioner for Children and Young People Tasmania's Facebook page to be included on said in-platform social media feeds. The Commissioner for Children and Young People Tasmania does not claim ownership rights to third-party content accessed via social media (displayed or otherwise). Where agreement has been secured to use hashtagged or tagged social media content, the rights holder may opt out of the agreement at any time by emailing childcomm@childcomm.tas.gov.au.

The Commissioner for Children and Young People Tasmania will not use your Content outside of these social media channels or social media aggregation tools, nor will content be posted without credit to the rights holder.

If your Content is identified to fill the needs of our image library or a specific publication, the Commissioner for Children and Young People Tasmania will contact the rights holder to negotiate the correct licensing options.

If you have any questions about this policy, or you wish to revoke this licence at any time, you may contact us in writing at childcomm@childcomm.tas.gov.au and inform us that you no longer want us to use your photo or video.

The Commissioner for Children and Young People Tasmania acts in good faith in accordance with Facebook's Statement of Rights and Responsibilities.
